The Coopers go camping

Tom and William go to William Cooper's 2nd birthday, so the Coopers have decided to go camping for the night.

Where are the Coopers going?

The Coopers are going to the campsite.

Tom: "Suzi, William and Jasper arrive at the campsite. They are greeted by lots of happy campers."

Suzi: "Let's find a great spot to pitch the tent."

Tom: "Suzi, let's find a great spot to pitch the tent."

Suzi: "I need to thread this rope through the hole and attach the tent to the rope on your side a bit."

Tom: "Suzi please can you thread the rope on your side a bit?"

Suzi: "Of course!"

Tom: "Oh no, that's a bit too loose! Just tighten it up a tiny bit!"

What is the opposite of LOOSE and (to) loosen?

..... Tom."

Suzi: "Let me hand you the hammer to use a hammer to hammer each peg into the ground."

Tom: "Great! Now let's set up a tent before it gets dark!"

Tom and William go to the campsite.

Tom: "I will need to pitch the tent."

Suzi then goes to the campsite.

The Coopers sat down around the campfire to have a meal before bed.

As the sun began to set Suzi had to pitch the tent.

Suzi: "William your sleeping bag is ready for bed, you can go to bed."

William: "Mummy, can you help me?"

Meanwhile Tom was putting baby Jasper to sleep.

Tom: "Ouch! I just got bitten by a mosquito."

Suzi: "There are lots of mosquitos flying about. Quick, get some mosquito repellent."

As night fell the Coopers went to bed.

Tom: "What lovely day, it's a shame the tent tomorrow."
